Dummy Bomb Rips House

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — The 900-pound dummy bomb fell with a whistling roar that shattered the Sunday quiet of the Tennessee countryside. Five-thousand feet below, in his family's fashionable, two-story house, Al Parrott, 60, was startled by the sound that he couldn't comprehend. "I've never heard anything that loud before," he said. Then there was a terrific "I could hear my grandmoth- er hollering and crying but I couldn't see her because there was so much dust and plaster in there," he said. "After I found out she was all right I ran and jumped into the car and drove to church where my father was." Israelis
